Andria brings over 30 years of accounting experience to her role at CPN Legal. As a QuickBooks Certified professional, she combines technical expertise with attention to detail and a deep commitment to small business success—making her a valuable asset to the team. Her passion for business is rooted in a strong family legacy. Her grandfather owned Habig's, a beloved German home-cooking restaurant on Cincinnati's west side, and both of her parents were entrepreneurs. She was especially inspired by her mother, who managed multiple properties and ran her own company.

As a mother of four, Andria values CPN Legal's family-oriented culture and close-knit, welcoming environment. Outside of work, she enjoys spending quality time with family—whether it's boating and camping at Lake Norris, cheering on the Bengals downtown, or hosting Sunday Funday dinners. Influenced by her upbringing of home-cooked meals and the family restaurant, Andria has developed a passion for cooking and loves sharing her food with those she cares about, especially her chili!
