Terry Busell is a Senior Accountant with CPN Legal. Terry began his career in payroll many years ago and discovered his ability to learn software quickly and eventually began specializing in QuickBooks bookkeeping. Terry is dedicated to helping clients comprehend their financial status through timely and accurate reports and enjoys CPN Legal's collaborative nature. With CPN Legal, Terry is excited to partner with clients on their journey to success.

Terry enjoys watching football, cheering on the Dallas Cowboys and San Francisco 49ers when he is not at work. Terry is involved in his wife's family non-profit organization, the Montgomery Thatcher Cemetery Association, established in 1978. Its purpose is to restore and preserve a cemetery containing family members who were early settlers in Texas. Terry is also a member of the SAC Elite Guard Association and once was elected as a city councilman, later serving as the mayor. Terry shares that he could never live without his family and, of course, movies! His favorites are "The Pianist," "Schindler's List," "Dune," and "The Accountant," among others.
