Denise Watson

Senior Accountant

513-348-1026 | denisew@cpn-legal.com

With over 12 years of experience in public accounting, Denise brings a wealth of knowledge and a passion for helping clients make informed business decisions. Drawn to the profession by the diversity and complexity of client needs, she thrives on putting all the pieces together to deliver a polished, strategic final product. Denise's attention to detail and organizational skills make her a trusted resource for both colleagues and clients.

What Denise values most about working at CPN Legal is the people, the culture, and of course Jasper. The firm's unique structure and welcoming environment were key factors in her decision to join the team. Outside of work, Denise enjoys life on a 6.5-acre country property with her husband of 18 years, a lively cat, and a flock of chickens. They grow and preserve produce from a large garden and dream of expanding their farm with more animals.
