With more than 20 years of bookkeeping experience across a variety of small business environments, Kim brings a steady, solutions-driven approach to her role at CPN Legal. She thrives on closing out months and years with precision, taking pride in reconciliations that are accurate, organized, and complete. Drawn to bookkeeping organically over the course of her career, she values a workplace built on collaboration, respect, and flexibility, all qualities she found at CPN Legal.

Outside of the office, Kim is most passionate about her family and raising kind, capable humans alongside her husband of 15 years. She is a lifelong Cincinnati Bengals fan, loves the beach and recently became a Grandma. In her downtime, she loves to cook and have large family gatherings as well as cuddling up for a movie with her kiddos on a snowy day. Clients appreciate her dependable nature and problem-solving mindset. While she may not always have an immediate answer, she is committed to finding the right one every time.
